

Photographs

Aerial view, April 1973

Mrs Barrington's papers included a number of photographs reproduced here (though not actual size). Many photos were faded and I have digitally enhanced these, sometimes to good effect sometimes not. There are many names missing and it would be good to know these. The photographs used in Binegar – A Short History were not in the collection.

Gurney Slade demolished cottages

These are two houses where Miss A Emery's family and Miss Reynold's family lived. They were pulled down. Thomas Thorner's and Mr Lovell's bungalows were put up in their place.
